Activity: Visit to Hong Kong Palace Museum

Objective of the Activity:

1. Understand traditional Chinese culture
2. Cultivate the children's appreciation for Chinese culture and strengthen their sense of identity.

Activity Introduction and Record:

During the visit, the children learned about the auspicious mythical beasts (the Qilin, Phoenix, Dragon, and Crane) of ancient Chinese mythology through vivid and interesting stories. This allowed them to understand China's auspicious mythical creatures.

In addition, the children also visited the "From Dawn to Dusk: Life in the Forbidden City" gallery, where they were able to learn about the living conditions and tools (such as tableware and seals) used by members of the imperial family in the past. This helped enhance and cultivate the children's cultural confidence and pride in their nation, passing on the traditional values of Chinese culture.
